

Okanagan Boys & Girls Clubs

ENDERBY YOUTH SUMMIT

September 21 – 23, 2012 at

Camp Arrowflight

The Enderby Youth Summit is an opportunity for open and meaningful discussion between youth of different cultures to discuss social issues affecting them and to develop effective solutions. An experienced facilitator will guide the work of the group.

The Youth Summit is for youth aged 13-19 years living in the Enderby area. The event is presented by the City of Enderby, Splat sin, School District # 83, Area F and Okanagan Boys and Girls Clubs.

What will be the outcome?

- Problems affecting youth will be identified and proposed solutions will be presented.
- Youth will work together to develop a Community Action Plan aimed at addressing the top recommendations

For more information contact:

Don Bennett (SD#83) at 250-838-6431 or dbennett@sd83.bc.ca

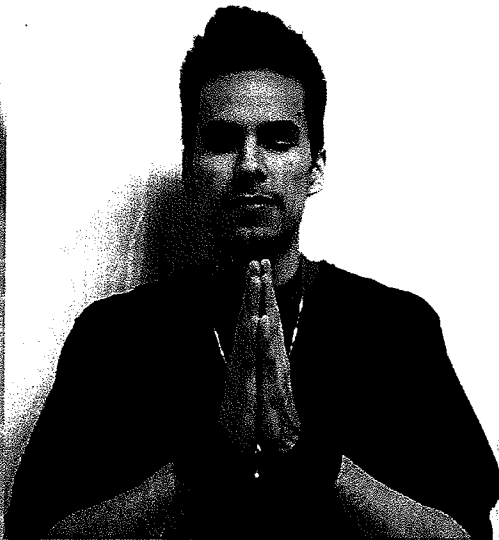

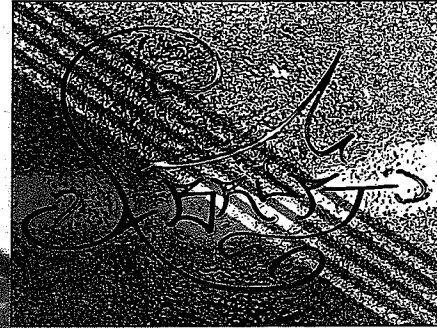

Michelle Webster (Splat sin) at 250-308-6586 or michelle_webster@splat sin.ca

ARTIST / PERSONAL BIO

WARREN HOOLEY A.K.A "Abrupt"

"Everything I do in my life, is moving towards one goal To get closer to being the person I really am".

At 26 years old, Warren is a Half Caucasian, Half Okanagan Indigenous man, currently living in Penticton B.C. Today, Warren facilitates workshops for youth and young adults on self-development techniques, incorporating Hip-Hop and Hilarious group games to keep it light and fun. With the creation of his own genre of music titled: Inspirational Hip Hop, Warren is set to change the music industry and prove that professional, great sounding and positive music can make it in the mainstream level of pop culture. Being in a very active state of self-development for the past three years, Warren is a living-breathing example of someone who has triumphed over his or her struggle with addictions. Since quitting Marijuana, Video Games and the "Party Lifestyle" Warren brings a perspective of someone who's been through the depths of depression and uncertainty in life....found a way to overcome it.