Summary of Membership Terms and Benefits

- In accordance with the Chamber's bylaws (Part 2 – Membership, Section 4(1)), an individual or organization applies to the directors for membership in the Chamber and, on acceptance by the directors, is a member.
- The membership application is submitted in an individual or organization's name with at least one designated representative / contact person. "Organizations" include for-profit companies, not-for-profit businesses, charities, associations, and public/social service groups (schools, churches, sports & recreation clubs, health organizations, and government agencies).
- Pursuant to the Chamber's bylaws (Part 2 – Membership, Section 5), every member must uphold the constitution and comply with the bylaws.
- The membership fee for the 2024 calendar year is $100 per individual or organization. For this fee, members can expect to benefit from advocacy, visibility, connections, learning, discounts, and other benefits such as:
 - A voice... be heard (one vote per member)
 - Attendance at sponsored networking events for up to two representatives free of charge
 - Attendance at educational workshops for up to two representatives at the member rate; additional representatives from member organizations may attend at the non-member rate
 - Promotion through social media and website business directory, and free brochure / business card racking at the Visitor Centre
 - Cross-collaboration opportunities to share your product / service, news, events, and special offers
- In 2024, the Chamber's goal is to host four networking opportunities and at least two educational workshops with guest speakers for professional development.
- The Chamber is a member of the BC Chamber of Commerce and Canadian Chamber of Commerce which offers additional discounts and benefits to members (e.g., Group Medical/Dental Insurance Plan). See www.bcchamber.org and www.chamber.ca for more information. Details to follow.
- Membership is open to organizations from any region or area; however, the Chamber's services are primarily focused on meeting the needs of organizations within the City of Enderby, Splatins, and RDNO Area F.
- Most but not all events and activities of the Chamber will be open to the public at non-member rates.
